MR UR BHATT AGP for Respondent No. 1, 2, 3

CORAM : MR.JUSTICE H.H.MEHTA

Date of decision: 04/10/2000

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The petitioner detenu has, by filing this writ petition under Art.226 of the Constitution of India, challenged the legality and validity of order of detention dt. 9/3/2000 Annexure : A passed by Respondent No. 1 which he has passed in exercise of powers conferred upon him under Sec.3(2) of the Gujarat Prevention of Antisocial Activities Act, 1985 (for short "the Act").

2. As per the papers of grounds of detention, it is the case of the detaining authority that petitioner detenu is a "bootlegger" within the meaning of Sec.2(b) of the Act and that his activities are prejudicial to the maintenance of public order. Before passing an order of detention, for arriving at his subjective satisfaction, the detaining authority has placed reliance on three prohibition cases two in Prohibition Station of Bhavnagar City and one in "A" Division Police Station of Bhavnagar City lodged against the detenu which are referred to in grounds of detention. He also placed reliance on statements of three un-named witnesses whose identity has not been disclosed by claiming privilege under Sec.9(2) of the Act. As per the papers, the detaining authority verified the statements of said three witnesses on 7/3/2000 and on 9/4/2000 respectively, he passed an order of detention which is challenged in this writ petition.

3. Though Rule has been served upon each respondent,the respondents have not filed affidavit-in-reply in reply to the Writ Petition controverting the grounds mentioned in Memo thereof.

4. Ms. Kachhuvah, the learned advocate for the petitioner has argued that detaining authority who has placed reliance on statements of three witnesses made verification of three statements on 7/3/2000 by putting an endorsement "verified the contents". She has further argued that looking to this short cutt method of verification by putting an endorsement of two words itself, shows that the detaining authority has not applied his mind before passing an order of detention. She has placed reliance on case of JAKIRBHAI RAHIMBHAI NAGORI Vs. DISTRICT MAGISTRATE, MAHESANA AND OTHERS, reported in 1996(1) GLH 300. Looking to the facts of that cited case, in that case, detaining authority had only put an endorsement of one word "verified" below statement of such witness. This Court held that the claim of privilege made by the detaining authority on the basis of such endorsement was not genuine and therefore continued detention of the detenu was held to be illegal, and in that case, order of detention was set aside and the detenu of that case was released.

5. Here in this case, the detaining authority has put an endorsement of words "verified the contents", and therefore, claim of privilege made by detaining authority under Sec.9(2) of the Act was not genuine. In view of the above, the order which is challenged in this writ petition is bad in law, and it requires to be quashed and set aside.

6. In view of what is stated hereinabove, this writ petition is allowed. The order of detention dt. 9/3/2000 passed by Respondent no. 1 which is at Annexure: A is quashed and set aside. The petitioner detenu is ordered to be released forth with, if he is not required to be detained further for any criminal case or proceedings. Rule is made absolute accordingly. Direct Service is permitted.
